

El Sol de Tampico

LA School of Gymnastics' LA Lights 2012 Highlights Rítmika

Outstanding Performance with Karen Villanueva, Andrea Garza and Cindy Gallegos in the international fair, who accompany selected in Ukraine.

El Sol de Tampico
February 7, 2012

The selected Tamaulipas, Andrea Garza and Karen Villanueva, surprised with podium finishes in international competition of rhythmic gymnastics that takes place in Los Angeles, California, where prevails the presence of international stars in different categories. Under the Institute's training program Tamaulipeco Sports, led by Enrique de la Garza Ferrer, the state selected Rítmika School of Gymnastics opened its international route in a tournament full of athletes who will be in the Olympics in 2012. In the children's division, the Tamaulipas Andrea Gonzalez has displaced from the podium to gymnasts who were called to captivate the international tournament, winning the silver medal in the ring test and placed in fourth place in the art hands-free. And to leave no doubt of the quality of the pupils the state coach, Sofia Velasco Sanchez, Karen Villanueva grabbed the silver and bronze medals in the ring and ball test, Juvenile Division. For its part, the state selected gymnast, Cindy Gallegos, is competing in the largest category, where involving the national selected Ukraine and Belarus, where he is having an outstanding performance.